Dear Mr. Rogers:

I am writing to you on behalf of my constituent, [REDACTED]. She has contacted me regarding the current status of her federal pardon application.

The enclosed letter from [REDACTED] indicates the hardship delays in processing her pardon application are causing her as well as the last status update she received from your office. My constituent requests information with respect to the current status of her application.

Please direct your response to Alyson Herdeman of my staff via fax at (414) 276-7284. Thank you for your time and attention to this request.

Sincerely,

Russell D. Feingold
United States Senator

Dear Senator Russ Feingold,

My name is [REDACTED] I am writing you today to ask for your assistance in helping me get my record expunged.

I was convicted of [REDACTED] in which I [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

I applied for a pardon in July 2007. A full investigation was done including interviews by the FBI which was completed in early 2008. I wrote the US Department of Justice on August 4, 2008 asking for a status report. I received a reply back on August 25th, which I have included for your review.

[REDACTED] I realize this is a lengthy process but would greatly appreciate anything you could do to help move this along.

Please help me. I also sent this letter to President Obama.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

Dear Senator Feingold:

This is in reply to your letter of October 1, 2010 in which you inquired of the status of the application for presidential pardon submitted by [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] application for pardon was received in this office on June 28, 2007 and is being processed. The amount of time required to process such applications until they have been adjudicated by the President can be lengthy, and no assurance can be provided that [REDACTED] application will be decided upon within a specific period of time. However, as soon as her application has been adjudicated, [REDACTED] will be promptly informed of the results.

Sincerely,

Ronald L. Rodgers
Pardon Attorney

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing to you again on behalf of one of my constituents,
Mr. William Hyman of Oconomowoc, Wisconsin.

Mr. Hyman submitted his pardon application for review earlier this year. To this date, he has not received word from the Presidential Pardon Advisory Board as to the status of his application.

Your full and fair consideration of his pardon application would be greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Russell D. Feingold

The Honorable Russell D. Feingold
United States Senate
Washington, DC 20510

Dear Senator Feingold:

This responds to your letter of March 29, 2001, regarding the clemency application of your constituent, William Hyman.

Mr. Hyman filed an application for pardon which was received in this office on February 12, 2001, and it is currently under consideration. While we are unable to predict when a decision will be reached, he will be notified promptly when final action has been taken.

Thank you for your interest in this matter.

Sincerely,
